I am told that a committee of Montgomery County Republicans, made up, it is presumed, of the adherents of Senator Collots, called on Milner before the meeting of the Senatorial Convention at Vandalla and demanded to know where he stood on the question of electing a United States Senator,

"Ask David R. Sparks," was the only satisfaction vouchsafed the committee by the candidate. Now Sparks is an eminently respectable old gentleman living at Alton, and is the father-in-law of Doctor Milnor. Mr. Sparks has been on every side of every question, but always within the lines of the Republican party. When he was a member of the General Assembly his party Steering Committee never could count on him until the time came for him to make

I hardly need to say to you that the spreading of false alarms of this kind is a very questionable and responsible thing for the spreading of from the channel of our monetary system from the channel is mme of party politics.

The Remedy is Plain.

Do you see any reason for doubting that Congress at its next season will do thir! It is quite evident that, if there is any substance at all in your predictions of disaster, the Republicans in Congress cannot refusit to do it without provine that the professed solicitude of the Republican party for the maintenance of the 201d standard is arrant hypocrisy. But if there he are wavering, I am convinced public opinion will, in case of necessity, compet them to take the necessary steps.

You will thus have to admit, Mr. Secretary, that when you sounded your note of alarm, you had overlooked the most important fact that you and your party friends, that is, the Republican majority in Congress, led by the administration, of which you form so influential a part, will be able easily and promptly to remedy the defects of the law which you have described as a source of terrible danger, and therefore your note of alarm was, to say the least, a mistaken one. It may suggest likely to you has a matter worthy of grave consideration whether you should not retract what you have said, in fairness to the business community, which should not be unnecessarily disquiteted, especially not by those in authority. I am sure many of your fellow-citizens are anxious to know what you may have to say on the aspect of the situation. Very respectfully yours. C. SCHUEZ. Belton Landing, Lake George, N. Y. DOCTORS CAME FROM AFAR.

The names of the duellets were Thomas Wilton and Thomas Jones.

The two men had been having trouble since July 1. This morning they had a quarret and Jones rushed at Wilton with a hoe. Wilton pulled a revolver and fired five shots, but missed his assailant, who fiel, but returned in about an hour with a shot-aun.

At the second meeting Wilton drew his pistel and both men began circling around a farm wagon. Jones fired twice with his chotgun, but missed his man, who emptied four chambers of his pistel without result. Jones reloaded his shotgun and shot Wilton deed.

He then secured a team and drove rapidly away toward Dellas. He arrived in this city this evening and surrendered to Shotif Hughes, who locked him up in the county jall.
